entre a pena e a justiça negociada a im possibilidade do anpp após a denúncia de bruno henrique lacerda bispo é uma obra de grande relevância no cenário jurídico contemporâneo especialmente no contexto da consolidação de modelos de justiça penal negociada no brasil com abordagem crítica linguagem precisa e rigor metodológico o autor se debruça sobre um dos temas mais controversos do processo penal atual os limites temporais para a celebração do acordo de não persecução penal anpp trata se de uma reflexão indispensável não apenas para estudiosos do direito processual penal mas também para operadores do sistema de justiça criminal que lidam diariamente com os desafios práticos impostos por esse novo instituto ponderando a suspensão parcial sursis partiel da pena de prisão existente em alguns países europeus e no brasil e a importância que assume em si mesma na reinserção social dos arguidos revelada pela sua aplicação na europa e ponderada a relevância do instituto da reparação do dano no direito sancionatório português desde o início do procedimento criminal até à extinção da pena de prisão e nas novas tendências relativas à consensualização e diversão na aplicação do direito penal afirma se partindo do direito penal existente o interesse a adequação e a existência de um espaço na ordem jurídica portuguesa para a introdução da suspensão parcial da pena de prisão na panóplia das penas de substituição da pena de prisão esta obra traz um estudo sobre cesare beccaria filósofo italiano que influenciou a legislação o com apenas 26 anos de idade bem como do contexto europeu de sua época quando o ordenamento jurídico permitia tortura exílio e até pena de morte nesta tradução de dos delitos e das penas nota se que as punições são justas na proporção em que a liberdade preservada pelo soberano é sagrada e valiosa segundo beccaria para quem tudo o que vai além disso é abuso não justiça ele expõe que os crimes devem ser medidos apenas pelo dano causado à sociedade com base nessa exposição muitos países reformaram seus códigos adotando uma penalidade específica para cada indivíduo nonparametric statistics has probably become the leading methodology for researchers performing data analysis it is nevertheless true that whereas these methods have already proved highly effective in other applied areas of knowledge such as biostatistics or social sciences nonparametric analyses in reliability currently form an interesting area of study that has not yet been fully explored applied nonparametric statistics in reliability is focused on the use of modern statistical methods for the estimation of dependability measures of reliability systems that operate under different conditions the scope of the book includes smooth estimation of the reliability function and hazard rate of non repairable systems study of stochastic processes for modelling the time evolution of systems when imperfect repairs are performed nonparametric analysis of discrete and continuous time semi markov processes isotonic regression analysis of the structure function of a reliability system and lifetime regression analysis besides the explanation of the mathematical background several numerical computations or simulations are presented as illustrative examples the corresponding computer based methods have been implemented using r and matlab a concrete modelling scheme is chosen for each practical situation and in consequence a nonparametric inference procedure is conducted applied nonparametric statistics in reliability will serve the practical needs of scientists statisticians and engineers working on applied reliability subjects
